

Planetary Forecast for March 24-30, 2008

Please excuse this abbreviated version of the forecast for this week. We're in the midst of moving and in rural country that means loss of internet connectivity. I hope to be back on schedule soon.

This week... on Monday the 24th we'll start the day's aspects early with the 12:20 a.m. EDT sextile between Scorpio Moon and Pluto (in Capricorn). At 4:03 Moon then sextiles with Saturn (in Virgo). At 6:20 Moon forms a quincunx with Aries Sun then at 9:29 Mercury (in Pisces) conjuncts with Venus (also in Pisces). We end the day's aspects early with the 1:07 p.m. EDT trine between Scorpio Moon and Mars (in Cancer). This is considerable Water energy today, so expect the threat of downpours and flooding where Low Pressure resides. Moon energy will also be focused on "spring cleaning;" getting rid of who and what has been holding one back and muddying the ability to be the best that you can be. Productivity should be on the increase, so projects and enthusiasm for accomplishing whatever is on your list is high. Communication should be positive and advantageous. Earth signs may find the day a bit overwhelming, not being the type to like fast change; don't push those folks. Otherwise, seize the moment.

Tuesday the 25th begins a bit later with the 4:39 a.m. EDT trine between Scorpio Moon and Venus (in Pisces). At 5:21 Moon trines with Mercury (in Pisces). At 12:33 p.m. EDT, Moon squares with Chiron (Aquarius). In twelve minutes Moon sextiles with Jupiter (in Capricorn). At 1:13 Moon trines with Uranus (in Pisces). At 8:36 we end the day with the Moon square with Neptune (in Aquarius). There remains plenty of energy for conflict, but you don't have to participate. Those with the track record and wisdom know how to navigate these tricky waters. As Moon says to Neptune, "Dream later. We have work to do."

Wednesday the 26th will bring us a Moon shift and one aspect, which should be self explanatory as soon as you hear what they are. First at 10:11 a.m. EDT, Moon shifts into Sagittarius and it takes awhile for Moon take on that Fire sign's energy. That occurs at 3:57 p.m. EDT when Sagittarius Moon squares with Saturn (in Virgo). Here's Fire energy balking against all that Scorpio (Water energy) tried to get straightened out/accomplished in the last few days. On the one hand that's good for areas to dry out after considerable rain energy; on the other hand, some could be dealing with rule-breaking situations and some concerns for personal conflict and back-stabbing. If disagreements can be arbitrated fine. Focus on "just and fair." Avoid shortcuts and spite for they will come back to bite.

Thursday the 27th find Sagittarius bringing forth its best characteristics for creativity and talent. First at 12:04: a.m. EDT, Sagittarius Moon trines with Aries Sun bringing double Fire energy to Earth; that's considerable drying energy, but also an atmosphere for something else. By 3:43, Moon forms a quincunx with Mars (in Cancer) and I'm afraid that suggests explosions either of tempers, atmosphere, or other criminal/war behavior, or environmental hazards. This could be a day when delightful surprises and opportunity exists for the individual, but avoid taking on national or international negotiations. Big losses loom for those who have already laid a pattern for neglect, arrogance, impatience and recklessness.

Friday, the 28th begins at 12:13 a.m. EDT with Sagittarius Moon square with Venus (in Pisces). At 1:25 Moon sextiles with Chiron (in Aquarius). At 2:05 Moon squares with Uranus (in Pisces). At 3:40, Moon squares with Mercury (in Pisces). All that means is hashing over old news 24/7 is going to trigger more pain and danger. Look at who is the center of the trouble and consider if cut and release isn't the best option until things get realigned or renegotiated. In about six hours Sagittarius Moon sextiles with Neptune (in Aquarius). By 6:54 p.m. EDT, Venus (in Pisces) sextiles with Jupiter (in Capricorn), and four minutes later Venus conjuncts with Uranus (in Pisces). If you don't have anything better to do, by all means manipulate and play games re rewriting truth and what is is. Otherwise, say thanks but no thanks to anything that could corner you somewhere that makes you uncomfortable. Financially there are no quick fixes and staying afloat and solvent is going to look very admirable down the road. At 10:43 p.m. EDT Moon enters Capricorn.

Saturday, the 29th and 1:00 a.m. EDT Capricorn Moon conjuncts with Pluto (also in Capricorn). This is followed by the 4:08 trine between Moon and Saturn (in Virgo). The double Earth energy suggests a solid attempt to stop the earthquake and crazy momentum of rapid and reckless change. At 5:47 Moon then squares with Aries Sun followed at 6:14 by Moon opposing Mars (in Cancer). There's a tendency to ignore or reject loud requests, tirades, or silly (juvenile) conduct. It's that simple. Accept that things shoddy will fall apart now--and by all means keep the guilty-negligent accountable--but use this energy to move forward. It can get accomplished.

Sunday the 30th at 3:20 a.m. EDT, Aries Sun squares with Mars (in Cancer). That's hard news for Aries' own planet. No new ideas needed now. At 2:02 p.m. EDT Capricorn Moon sextiles with Uranus (in Pisces). At 2:15 Moon conjuncts with Jupiter (also in Capricorn). At 6:36 Moon sextiles with Venus (in Pisces). All of this Earth and Water energy suggest some rain is possible, but not the flooding seen lately where Low Pressure Systems prevail. Otherwise, people are dealing and wheeling, and negotiating for a better position and stability. This could surprise some who find themselves on a ledge, but only if you assumed too much in the first place.
